

There is great value to me in my national and regional K-LOVE radio station. I thoroughly enjoy listening to this station at all hours of my day. It informs me of events in my community and creates a positive environment for my friends and family. I would have no other options in my area for Christian music. This station provides clean, decent, positive, uplifting entertainment in my community and is greatly needed to help families develop moral and Christian values.